CHAPTER 5.05
CAUSES OF ACTION (SURVIVAL) ACT

AN ACT TO MAKE PROVISION FOR THE SURVIVAL OF CAUSES OF ACTION SUBSISTING AGAINST OR VESTED IN A PERSON AT THE TIME OF DEATH OF THAT PERSON; AND TO MAKE PROVISION FOR RELATED OR INCIDENTAL MATTERS.

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Causes of Action (Survival) Act.

Effect of death on certain causes of action.

2. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, on the death of any person after the commencement of this Act all causes of action subsisting against or vested in him or her shall survive against, or, as the case may be, for the benefit of his or her estate:

Provided that this subsection shall not apply to causes of action for defamation or seduction or for inducing one spouse to leave or remain apart from the other or to claims under the Divorce Act, Cap. 12.03 for damages on the ground of adultery.

- (2) Where a cause of action survives as provided in subsection (1) for the benefit of the estate of a deceased person, the damages recoverable for the benefit of the estate of that person—

- (a) shall not include any exemplary damages;
- (b) in the case of a breach of promise to marry shall be limited to such damage, if any, to the estate of that person as flows from the breach of promise to marry;
- (c) where the death of that person has been caused by the act or omission which gives rise to the cause of action, shall be calculated without reference to any loss or gain to his or her estate consequent on his or her death, except that a sum in respect of funeral expenses may be included.

- (3) No proceedings shall be maintainable in respect of a cause of action in tort which, by virtue of this section, has survived against the estate of a deceased person, unless either—

- (a) proceedings against him or her in respect of that cause of action were pending at the date of his or her death; or
- (b) the cause of action arose not earlier than six months before his or her death and proceedings are taken in respect thereof not later than six months after his or her personal representative took out representation.

(4) Where damage has been suffered by reason of any act or omission in respect of which a cause of action would have subsisted against any person if that person had not died before or at the same time as the damage was suffered, there shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, to have been subsisting against him or her before his or her death such cause of action in respect of that act or omission as would have subsisted if he or she had died after the damage was suffered.

(5) The rights conferred by this Act for the benefit of the estates of deceased persons shall be in addition to and not in derogation of any rights conferred on the dependants of deceased persons by the Fatal Accidents Act, Cap. 23.10, as amended, or the Carriage by Air Act, 1987 as extended to the State by the Carriage by Air (Colonies Protectorates and Mandated Territories) Order, 1934 (Imperial) and so much of this Act as relates to causes of action against the estates of deceased persons shall apply in relation to causes of action under the said Acts as it applies in relation to other causes of action not expressly excepted from the operation of subsection (1).

(6) In the event of the insolvency of an estate against which proceedings are maintainable by virtue of this section, any liability in respect of the cause of action in respect of which the proceedings are maintainable shall be deemed to be a debt provable in the administration of the estate, notwithstanding that it is a demand in the nature of unliquidated damages arising otherwise than by a contract, promise or breach of trust.
