PRELIMINARY

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Land Acquisition Act.

Interpretation.

2. In this Act—

“authorised officer” means any person who may, from time to time, be appointed as such by the Governor-General for the purposes of this Act;
(Amended by Act 10 of 1969)

“Governor-General” means the Governor-General acting in accordance with the advice of the Cabinet;
(Inserted by Act 7 of 1976)

“person interested” means every person claiming, or entitled to claim, compensation under this Act:

Provided that a tenant by the month or at will shall be deemed not to be a person interested for the purposes of this Act;

“public purpose” means a purpose determined to be a public purpose in accordance with the provisions of section 3.

PART II

ACQUISITION OF LAND AND ABANDONMENT OF ACQUISITION

Acquisition of land.

3. (1) If the Governor-General considers that any land should be acquired for a public purpose he or she may, with the approval of the National Assembly, cause a declaration to that effect to be made by the Secretary to the Cabinet in the manner provided by this section, and the declaration shall be conclusive evidence that the land to which it relates is required for a public purpose.
(Substituted by Act 10 of 1969)

(2) Every declaration shall be published in two ordinary issues of the Gazette and copies thereof shall be posted on one of the buildings (if any) on the land or exhibited at suitable places in the locality in which the land is situate, and in the declaration shall be specified the following particulars relating to the land which is to be acquired—

- (a) the parish or district in which the land is situate;

- (b) a description of the land giving the approximate area and such other particulars as are necessary to identify the land;
- (c) in cases where a plan has been prepared, the place where, and the time when, a plan of the land can be inspected;
- (d) the public purpose for which the land is required.

(3) Upon the second publication of the declaration in the Gazette as aforesaid the land shall vest absolutely in the Crown, and the authorised officer and his or her agents, assistants and workers may enter and take possession of the land accordingly.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prevent the acquisition of lands for public purposes by private treaty.

Preliminary notification and power to enter land.

4. If it appears to the Governor-General that any land is likely to be required for any purpose which, in the opinion of the Governor-General, is a public purpose and it is necessary to make a preliminary survey or other investigation of the land, he or she may cause a notification to that effect to be published in the Gazette and at the same time in notices to be exhibited at suitable places in the locality in which the land is situate, and thereupon it shall be lawful for the authorised officer and his or her agents, assistants, and workers, to do all or any of the following things—

- (a) to enter upon and survey and take levels of any land in any locality to which the notification relates;
- (b) to dig or bore into the sub-soil of such land;
- (c) to do all other acts necessary to ascertain whether the land is adapted to such purpose;
- (d) to demarcate the land intended to be taken, and the intended line of work, if any, proposed to be done thereon;
- (e) to mark levels and lines by placing marks and cutting trenches;
- (f) where otherwise the survey cannot be completed, the levels taken or the boundaries or line of the work demarcated, to cut down and clear away any standing crop, fence, tree or bush;
- (g) to do all such other acts as may be incidental to or necessary for any of the purposes aforesaid:

Provided that—

- (aa) the authorised officer shall not enter into any building, or into or upon any enclosed yard, court or garden attached to a dwelling house, except at reasonable hours, and except with the consent of the occupier thereof, without previously giving to such occupier at least seven days' notice in writing of his or her intention to do so;
- (bb) compensation shall be assessed and paid to the persons interested in the land so entered for any actual damage or injury resulting to them by reason of the exercise of the powers conferred by this section in so far as it relates to land—
  - (i) the acquisition of which is subsequently deemed to be abandoned under section 9 or abandoned under section 10, as though it were compensation payable under this Act for the acquisition of the land;

- (ii) the compulsory acquisition of which is subsequently completed under section 3, as though it were part of the compensation for the acquisition of the land.

(Amended by Act 10 of 1969)

Power to apply land to purposes of acquisition without waiting for formal vesting.

5. If, at any time after the publication of a notification in accordance with the provisions of section 4, it appears to the Governor-General that the land or some parcel of the land to which it refers should be acquired, but that for any reason it is not possible to make an immediate declaration to that effect, it shall be lawful for the Governor-General to direct the authorised officer to do any work on the land or parcel thereof connected with the use to which the land is intended to be put on its acquisition, and thereupon the authorised officer may proceed with the execution of the work:

Provided that compensation shall be paid to the persons interested for any actual damage or injury resulting to them by reason of the exercise of the powers conferred by this section and shall be determined in the same way as compensation for actual damage or injury resulting from the exercise of the powers conferred by section 4.

(Amended by Act 10 of 1969)

Authorised officer to treat with landowner.

6. (1) As soon as any declaration has been published in accordance with the provisions of section 3, the authorised officer shall, without delay, enter into negotiations (or further negotiations) for the purchase of the land to which the declaration relates upon reasonable terms and conditions, and by voluntary agreement with the owner of the land.

(2) It shall not be necessary for the authorised officer to await the publication of the declaration before he or she endeavours to ascertain from the owner the terms and conditions on which he or she is willing to sell his or her land, but no negotiations or agreement shall be deemed to be concluded unless and until the conditions of sale and acquisition have been approved in writing by the Cabinet.

(Amended by Act 10 of 1969)

Demarcation of land and issue of notice of acquisition.

7. (1) As soon as may be, after any land has been acquired compulsorily, the authorised officer shall, if the land has not been demarcated or if it cannot be identified by reference to any plan, cause the same to be demarcated, and he or she shall also issue a notice of acquisition in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(2) Every notice of acquisition under this section shall—

- (a) state the decision of the Governor-General to acquire and take possession of the land compulsorily;
- (b) contain the particulars which, in relation to the land, were included in the declaration provided for by subsection (2) of section 3; and
- (c) require all persons interested, as soon as is reasonably practicable, either—
  - (i) to appear personally or by attorney or agent before the authorised officer to state the nature of their respective interests in the land and the amounts and full particulars of their claims to compensation in respect of those interests, distinguishing the amounts under separate heads and showing how the amount claimed under each head is calculated; or

- (ii) to render to the authorised officer a statement in writing, signed by them or by their attorneys or agents, setting forth the like matters.

(Amended by Act 10 of 1969)

(3) The authorised officer shall cause a copy of the notice of acquisition to be filed with the Registrar of Deeds of the circuit under the Registration and Records Act, Cap. 23.25 and with the Registrar of Titles and to be served, either personally on, or by post addressed to the last known place of abode or business of, every person who is known or believed by the authorised officer to be entitled to compensation in respect of the acquisition, and whose whereabouts are known to the authorised officer:

Provided that where the whereabouts of any such person are not known, the authorised officer shall cause copies of such notice to be posted on one of the buildings (if any) on the land or exhibited at suitable places in the locality in which the land is situate.

(Amended by Act 7 of 1976)

(4) Any person who, without lawful authority or excuse, removes or destroys any landmark placed, or removes or defaces or destroys any notice posted or exhibited, by the authorised officer in or upon the land or any building thereon in accordance with the provisions of this Act, shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding one thousand two hundred and fifty dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months.

(Amended by Act 9 of 1986)

Authorised officer may require information as to interests in land.

8. (1) The authorised officer may, by notice served personally, or by post addressed to the last known place of abode or business of the person concerned, require the owner or occupier of, or any person interested in, any land, or in any part thereof, in respect of which a declaration or a notification has been published in the Gazette under section 3 or section 4 respectively, to deliver to him or her within a time to be specified in the notice, being not less than twenty-one days after service of the notice, a statement in writing containing, so far as may be within his or her own knowledge, the name of every person possessing any interest in the land, or any part thereof, whether as partner, mortgagee, lessee, tenant or otherwise, and the nature of such interest.

(2) Every person who is required to make and deliver a statement under this section and who, without reasonable excuse, refuses to make or deliver such statement, or wilfully makes any such statement which is false or incomplete in any material particular, shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding one thousand two hundred and fifty dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months.

Claim of person interested to have land acquired or abandoned.

9. If, within nine months after entry has been made on any land under the provisions of section 4, such land shall not have been acquired or abandoned, any person interested in the land or any part thereof may serve notice on the authorised officer requiring that the acquisition of the land or part thereof be completed or abandoned, and, if within three months thereafter, the acquisition of such land or part thereof be not completed or abandoned in accordance with the provisions of this Act, the powers exercisable in pursuance of a preliminary notification published under section 4 shall cease and determine without prejudice to the exercise of the powers provided in section 3 either during, or after the determination of, the period of any such preliminary notification.

Abandonment of acquisition.

10. (1) At any time before any land has been acquired compulsorily the Governor-General may, by notification published in the Gazette, declare that the intended acquisition of such land is abandoned.

(Amended by Act 10 of 1969)

(2) When the acquisition of any land is abandoned in accordance with the provisions of this section, or the period of any preliminary notification has determined under section 9, any compensation payable by virtue of this Act shall, in default of agreement, be assessed as though it was compensation payable under this Act for the acquisition of land.

(3) No compensation shall be payable in any case for loss of bargain or for damages for breach of contract.

(Inserted by Act 7 of 1976)

(4) Where, in any case, the Governor-General is satisfied that the owner of the land has refused to exercise his or her right to nominate a member of the Board, or has unreasonably delayed such nomination, or where the persons interested in the land have failed to agree upon such nomination, the Governor-General may, by order in writing, direct the Chairperson to proceed with the inquiry notwithstanding that there has been no such nomination by the owner, and in every such case the Board shall be deemed to be lawfully constituted without the presence of such member, and, if there is any difference of opinion as to the amount of compensation that should be awarded, the decision of the Chairperson shall be deemed to be the decision of the Board.

(Amended by Act 7 of 1976)

Documents, etc., to be forwarded to the Board.

13. (1) Upon the appointment of a Board, or where proceedings are taken before a Magistrate for the determination of any question relating to the payment of compensation, the authorised officer, shall forward to the Chairperson, or to the Magistrate, as the case may be, those of the following documents and particulars which relate to the acquisition or the intended acquisition of the land, as the case may be—

(2) The decision of the majority of the members of the Board with respect to the compensation to be paid shall be deemed to be the decision of the Board, and, if all the members of the Board differ, the mean between the amount decided upon by the Chairperson and that one of the amounts decided upon by the two other members of the Board which approximates most nearly to the amount decided upon by the Chairperson shall be deemed to be the compensation awarded by the Board.

(3) An appeal shall lie against decision of the Board to the High Court.

PART V

PROVISIONS GOVERNING ASSESSMENT OF COMPENSATION, ETC.

*† Rules for assessment of compensation.

19. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the following rules shall apply to the assessment and award of compensation by a Board for the compulsory acquisition of land—

- (a) the value of the land shall, subject as hereinafter provided, be taken to be the amount which the land, in its condition at the material time, might be expected to realise if sold at that time in the open market by a willing seller for the purpose of being put to the same use to which such land was being put at the material time;
  - (b) in ascertaining the value of such land regard shall be had to the net amount of any income derived from that land at the material time, and where no income is derived therefrom at that time, to the rent at which the land might, at the material time, reasonably be expected to be let from year to year for the purpose of being put to the same use to which it was being put at that time.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) —
- (a) land shall be deemed to be used for agricultural purposes unless the party claiming compensation proves to the satisfaction of the appropriate authority that at the material time such land was being used for a purpose other than agricultural purposes;
  - (b) “agricultural purposes” includes all purposes directly connected with the use of land as arable, grazing, or pasture land, or for dairy farming, or for any other purpose of animal husbandry including the keeping or breeding of poultry or bees, or for the growth of fruit, vegetables or flowers;
  - (c) “the appropriate authority” means the authorised officer appointed under and for the purposes of this Act, a Board of Assessment

* Section 19 (a) as amended has been renumbered.

† Paragraphs (b) to (e) renumbered as subsections (3), (4), (5) and (6), respectively. See also Act 10 of 1969.

appointed under and for the purposes of this Act, or, as the case may be, any Judge, Court, Magistrate, tribunal, arbitrator or person authorised by this Act to determine the amount of compensation payable thereunder;

- (d) “the material time” means the date twelve months prior to the date of the second publication in the Gazette of the declaration under section 3 of this Act.

(Amended by Act 10 of 1969)

(3) The special suitability or adaptability of the land for any purpose shall not be taken into account if that purpose is a purpose to which the land could be applied only in pursuance of statutory powers, or for which there is no market apart from the special needs of a particular purchaser or the requirements of any Government department.

(4) Where the value of the land is increased by reason of the use thereof or of any premises thereon in a manner which could be restrained by any court, or is contrary to law, or is detrimental to the health of the inmates of the premises or to public health, the amount of that increase shall not be taken into account.

(5) Where land is, and but for the compulsory acquisition would continue to be, devoted to a purpose of such a nature that there is no general demand or market for land for that purpose, the compensation may, if the Board is satisfied that reinstatement in some other place is bona fide intended, be assessed on the basis of the reasonable cost of equivalent reinstatement.

(6) No allowance shall be made on account of—

- (a) the acquisition being compulsory or the degree of urgency or necessity which has led to the acquisition;
- (b) any disinclination of the person interested to part with the land acquired;
- (c) any damage sustained by the person interested which, if caused by a private person, would not render such person liable to an action;
- (d) any damage, not being in the nature of deprivation of or interference with an easement, servitude or legal right, which, after the time of awarding compensation, is likely to be caused by or in consequence of the use to which the land acquired will be put:

Provided that nothing therein shall prejudice any claim under this Act for damage subsequently sustained in consequence of the use to which the land acquired is put;

- (e) any increase to the value of the land acquired likely to accrue from the use to which the land acquired will be put;
- (f) any outlay or improvement of such land which has been made, commenced or effected within twelve months before the publication of the declaration under section 3, with the intention of enhancing the compensation to be awarded therefor in the event of such land being acquired for public purposes.

Special rule as to severance.

20. As to severance, compensation may be assessed on the footing that any specified works, crossings, or access agreed to on behalf of the Government of the State shall be erected, provided, and allowed, and any such agreement shall be reduced into writing and be signed by the Chairperson and shall be valid and effectual and binding on the parties.

(Amended by Act 10 of 1969)

Interest.

21. The Board, in awarding compensation, may add thereto interest at the rate of four per centum per annum, calculated from the date upon which the authorised officer entered into possession of the land acquired until the date of the payment of the compensation awarded by the Board.

*Rules as to costs.

22. (1) The authorised officer shall pay to the claimant the reasonable costs incurred by him or her in or about the preparation and submission of his or her claim, unless the Chairperson considers that the claimant has failed to put forward a proper claim within a reasonable time after the service of the notice under section 7 or that the claim put forward is grossly excessive or that he or she has been a party to some deceit or fraud in respect of his or her claim.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (1), where an unconditional offer in writing of any amount as compensation has been made to any claimant by or on behalf of the authorised officer and the sum awarded as compensation does not exceed the amount offered, the Chairperson shall, unless for special reasons he or she thinks it proper not to do so, order the claimant to bear his or her own costs and to pay the costs of the authorised officer so far as the costs of the authorised officer were incurred after the offer was made; and, where the claimant has failed to put forward a proper claim in sufficient time to enable the authorised officer to make a proper offer, the foregoing provisions of this section shall apply as if an unconditional offer had been made by or on behalf of the authorised officer at the time when, in the opinion of the Board, a proper claim should have been put forward and the claimant has been awarded a sum not exceeding the amount of such offer.

(3) Subject to the provisions of subsection (1), where a claimant has made an unconditional offer in writing to accept any amount as compensation and has put forward a proper claim in sufficient time to enable the authorised officer to make a proper offer, and the sum awarded is equal to or exceeds that amount, the Chairperson shall, unless for special reasons he or she thinks it proper not to do so, order the authorised officer to bear his or her own costs and to pay the costs of the claimant so far as the costs of the claimant were incurred after the offer was made.

(4) Subject to the preceding provisions of this section, the cost shall be in the discretion of the Chairperson who may direct to and by whom and in what manner those costs or any part thereof shall be paid, and he or she may in any case direct such costs to be taxed by the Registrar of the High Court.

(Amended by Act 10 of 1969)

(5) The mode of enforcing any order as to costs shall be in the manner prescribed by the practice of the High Court.

(Amended by Act 10 of 1969)

(6) Where the Chairperson orders the claimant to pay the costs or any part of the costs of the authorised officer, the authorised officer may deduct the amount so payable by the claimant from the amount of any compensation which may be payable to him or her.

PART VI

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Absentee owners.

23. (1) Where there is no person competent to alienate land or to receive or to give a sufficient discharge for any compensation awarded or where any person interested in land, by reason of his or her absence from the State and of his or her not being represented therein by a duly authorised attorney, does not submit a statement to or appear before the authorised officer as required by section 7, and where such person, after diligent inquiry, cannot be found, the authorised officer may pay the compensation into the High Court to the credit of the person entitled thereto.

(Amended by Act 10 of 1969)

(2) Any compensation paid into the High Court by virtue of this section may, on the subsequent application of any person claiming to be entitled thereto, be paid out to such person on the order of a Judge of the Court.

(Amended by Act 10 of 1969)

(3) All moneys paid into the High Court under the provisions of this section which remain unclaimed for twelve years after such payment shall be transferred and paid into the general revenue of the State, and all claims thereto shall be forever barred.

(Amended by Act 10 of 1969)

Compensation to persons interested in adjacent land.

24. A person interested in any land which, without any portion thereof being compulsorily acquired, has been injuriously affected by the erection or construction on land compulsorily acquired of any works in respect of which the land was acquired, shall be entitled to compensation in respect of such injurious affection:

Provided that compensation shall not be payable under this section in respect of any injurious affection which, if caused by a private person, would not render such person liable to an action.

Special provisions as to leases.

25. (1) If any land shall be comprised in a lease for a term of years unexpired and part only of such land shall be acquired compulsorily, the rent payable in respect of the land comprised in such lease may, on the application of the lessor or the lessee to a Judge of the High Court, be apportioned between the land acquired and the residue of the land.

(Amended by Act 10 of 1969)

(2) After such apportionment, the lessee shall, as to all future accruing rent, be liable to pay only so much of the rent as shall be so apportioned in respect of the residue of the land, and as to the residue of the land, and as against the lessee, the lessor shall have all the same rights and remedies for the recovery of such portion of the rent as previously to such apportionment he or she had for the recovery of the whole rent reserved by such lease, and all the covenants, conditions, and agreements of such lease, except as to the amount of rent to be paid, shall remain in force with regard to the residue of the land in the same manner as they would have done in case the residue of the land only had been included in the lease.

(3) Where it is shown that the compulsory acquisition of a portion of land comprised in a lease has rendered the residue unsuitable for the purpose for which the land was leased or where in the circumstances the said Court considers it just so to do the Court may rescind the lease altogether, and in such case the lessee shall only be liable to pay the rent due at the date of the occurrence of the circumstances on which the rescission order is based.

(4) Where, as the result of such rescission of lease, the lessor or lessee suffers any loss or injury he or she shall be entitled to compensation as hereinbefore provided in this Act.

Persons in possession to be deemed owners.

26. Where any question arises touching the title of any person to any land which may be entered upon or acquired for the purposes of this Act, or touching any estate or interest therein, the person having the ostensible possession or enjoyment of the rents and profits of such land shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be the owner of the same until the contrary is proved.

Fees and expenses of Board.

27. (1) Every assessor shall receive for his or her services such fee as the Cabinet, on the recommendation of the Chairperson, may direct.

(2) The Cabinet may also authorise the reimbursement of the travelling and subsistence expenses incurred by the Chairperson and members of a Board appointed under this Act.

Conveyancing, etc. costs to be paid by authorised officer.

28. All reasonable costs, charges, and expenses incurred by the owners of the land or persons interested therein for all conveyances, assurances, transfers and transmissions of any lands purchased or acquired, and of any outstanding terms or interests therein, and of deducing, evidencing and producing title to such lands, terms or interests, and of making out such abstracts and attested copies as the authorised officer may require, shall be paid by the authorised officer.

Payment of compensation, etc.

29. All amounts which have been awarded by way of compensation under this Act, including interest and costs to be paid by the authorised officer, and all other costs, charges and expenses which shall be incurred under the authority of this Act, shall be paid out of the Treasury on the warrant of the Minister of Finance.

(Amended by Act 10 of 1969)
