30. (1) Money shall not be expended under an appropriation Act unless the Minister has authorised the Accountant General by general warrant under his or her hand to pay that money out of the Consolidated Fund.

(2) A general warrant may reserve specified expenditures and may make provision for expending the reservation.

(3) Notwithstanding the issue of a general warrant, if, in his or her opinion, financial exigencies of the public interest so require, the Minister may in his or her discretion by written notice reserve at any time any expenditure authorised under an appropriation Act and may in the notice make provision for expending the reservation.

31. (1) If the appropriation Act for a financial year has not come into operation at the commencement of the financial year, the Minister may by provisional general warrant under his or her hand authorise expenditures necessary to carry on the services of Government until the expiration of four months from the beginning of that financial year or the coming into operation of the appropriation Act, whichever is the earlier, except that—

- (a) in the case of recurrent expenditures, only expenditures upon services in the annual estimates for which there was provision in the appropriation Act in operation in the previous financial year may be authorised under the provisional general warrant;

- (b) in the case of capital expenditures, only expenditures for which there was provision in the appropriation Act in operation in the previous financial year and that were contemplated to commence or continue in the current financial year are authorised under the provisional general warrant; and
- (c) the expenditure for any service shall not exceed one third of the amount voted for that service in the Appropriation Act for the previous year.

(2) The amounts paid pursuant to a provisional general warrant referred to in subsection (1) shall be deemed to have been paid pursuant to an appropriation made in respect of the estimates for expenditure referred to in subsection (1)(a), (b) or (c), as the case may be, until the appropriation Act comes into operation.

(3) Section 30(2) to (5) apply with such modifications as the circumstances require to a provisional general warrant made under subsection (1).

(4) On the coming into operation of the appropriation Act, the provisional general warrant shall lapse, and any money paid under it shall be deemed to have been paid for corresponding services in the estimates for which provision is made under the appropriation Act and shall be accounted for accordingly.

- (a) an expenditure for a service not foreseen and not provided for, or not sufficiently provided for is urgently required for the public good; and
- (b) the circumstances are such that the expenditure cannot, in the opinion of the Minister, be postponed without injury to the public good, the Minister may cause estimates of the amount of the expenditure to be prepared and may, in anticipation of approval of the expenditure in a supplementary appropriation Act, issue a special warrant under his or her hand authorising the expenditure to be made out of the Consolidated Fund, but the aggregate of the amounts authorised by special warrants issued under this section in the financial year shall not exceed twenty five percent (25%) of the annual estimates for the current year.

(2) When any expenditure has been authorised under subsection (1), supplementary estimates showing the expenditure shall be laid before the National Assembly as soon as reasonably possible after the date of the special warrant and when the supplementary estimate has been approved by the National Assembly, a supplementary appropriation Bill shall be introduced in the National Assembly providing for the issue of such sums from the Consolidated Fund and appropriating them to the purposes specified therein.

(3) When a special warrant is issued with respect to an expenditure for a service for which there is an appropriation, the amount provided by the special warrant as set out in the estimates shall be added to, and deemed to be part of, the appropriation specified in the general warrant for the financial year for which the special warrant is issued until the supplementary appropriation Act is passed.

(4) When a special warrant is issued with respect to an expenditure for a service for which there is no appropriation, the amount provided by the special warrant as set out in the estimates shall be deemed to be an appropriation for the services specified in the general warrant for the financial year for which the special warrant is issued until the supplementary appropriation Act is passed.

(5) On the coming into operation of the supplementary appropriation Act that appropriates money for expenditures authorised by a special warrant, the special warrant shall lapse and the expenditures made under it shall be deemed to have been made for the corresponding expenditures under the supplementary estimates for which provision is made under the supplementary appropriation Act and shall be accounted for accordingly.

Special warrant before appropriation Act is passed.

33. (1) Notwithstanding section 32(1), during any period when the appropriation Act for a financial year has not yet come into operation, a special warrant shall not be issued except in respect of capital expenditures for which there was provision in the appropriation Act in operation in the previous financial year and that were contemplated to commence or continue in the current financial year.

(2) If the capital expenditures are for a project identified in the annual estimates for that financial year, the special warrant lapses when the appropriation Act for the financial year comes into operation and the expenditures made under the special warrant are deemed to have been made for the corresponding expenditures under the annual estimates for which provision is made under the appropriation Act and shall be accounted for accordingly.
